

Exhibit T

1 no right to make that decision, and that we abort
2 the decision, since Walter is their employee.

3 WOMAN: They made a suggestion, not a
4 decision.

5 MS. HENRY: Yeah, well, yeah. So, here
6 we are [LAUGHTER] with the Walter situation.

7 [OVERLAPPING VOICES]

8 MR. MEYERS: When you get suspended,
9 it's supposed to be read to you why you're
10 suspended.

11 MS. HENRY: It was.

12 MR. MEYERS: And you either sign it or
13 you don't sign it. You didn't have the presence 14 to do that.

15 MS. HENRY: No, I didn't.

16 MR. MEYERS: I was standing right there
17 when he brought the stuff in, when he said the 18 first one is unacceptable. He came the next day
19 and handed in and typing. Everything was there.
20 Didn't even look at it. All he said is you're 21 suspended. Come on.

22 [OVERLAPPING VOICES]

23 MS. HENRY: On the Friday he brought in
24 the written piece of it, James advised him it
25 should have been a proper Excel spreadsheet, and